CV 12 0983
COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES AND
DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Complaint filed: February 22, 2012

20 PLAINTIFF PETER JUSTIN LANG ("Plaintiff"), by and through his attorneys, Law
21 Office of John W. Phillips, states the following as his Complaint against DEFENDANTS
22 SONOMA COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE, COUNTY OF SONOMA, ERIC SALKIN,
23 CHRISTOPHER HAAS, and MARK FUSTON ("Defendants"):

24 JURISDICTION

25 1. This is a civil rights action that arises from Defendants' unreasonable seizure and 26 use of excessive force against Plaintiff on June 8, 2011 at approximately 9:00 p.m. The 27 Defendants' actions constitute a deprivation of civil rights under color of law, and Plaintiff
28

1 brings this action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1988, and the Fourth and Fourteenth
2 Amendments to the United States Constitution. The jurisdictional basis for Plaintiff's claim is
3 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343(a)(3) and (4), and the aforementioned statutory and constitutional
4 provisions. Plaintiff further invokes supplemental jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to 28
5 U.S.C. § 1367 to hear and decide claims arising under California law.

7 INTRADISTRICT ASSIGNMENT

8 2. A substantial part of the events and/or omissions complained of herein occurred
9 in Sonoma County, California. Therefore, this action is properly assigned to the San Francisco
10 Division of the United States District Court for the Northern District of California.
11

12 PARTIES AND PROCEDURE

13 3. Plaintiff is a resident of the State of California. At the time of this incident,
14 Plaintiff was a carpenter and manufacturer of custom woodwork furnishings. He was working 15 full-time.
16

17 4. Defendant Sonoma County is a public entity established and maintained by the 18 laws and Constitution of the State of California. Defendant Sonoma County owns, operates,
19 manages, directs, and controls the Sonoma County Sheriff's Office ("SCSO") and employs
20 and/or is reasonably responsible for the other Defendants in this action.
21

22 5. Defendant SCSO is, and at all times herein mentioned was, a municipal entity
23 in the County of Sonoma in the State of California, and is wholly owned and operated by the 24 County of Sonoma.
25

26 6. Defendant Sheriff's Deputy Eric Salkin ("Salkin") was at all materials times
27 employed as a Sheriff's deputy by Defendants Sonoma County and SCSO and was acting
28

1 within the course and scope of that employment.

2 7. Defendant Sheriff's Deputy Christopher Haas ("Haas") was at all material times
3 employed as a Sheriff's deputy by Defendants Sonoma County and SCSO and was acting
4 within the course and scope of that employment.

6 8. Defendant Sheriff's Deputy Mark Fuston ("Fuston") was at all material times
7 employed as a Sheriff's deputy by Defendants Sonoma County and SCSO and was acting
8 within the course and scope of that employment.

10 9. The true names and capacities of Defendants sued herein as Does 1-10 are 11 unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues said Defendants by such fictitious names. Plaintiff
12 will seek leave to amend this Complaint to show their true names and capacities when Plaintiff
13 ascertains that information. Each Doe Defendant was an employee/agent of Sonoma County
14 and the SCSO and at all material times acted within the course and scope of that relationship.
15

16 10. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges that each of the 17 Defendants sued herein was negligently, wrongfully, and otherwise responsible in some manner
18 for the events and happenings hereinafter described and proximately caused injuries and 19 damages to Plaintiff. Further, one or more Doe Defendants were at all material times
20 responsible for the hiring, training, supervision and discipline of Defendants and other Doe
21 Defendants.

23 11. Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereon alleges that each of the Defendants,
24 unless otherwise stated, was at all material times an agent, servant, employee, partner, joint
25 venturer, co-conspirator, and/or alter ego of the remaining Defendants, and in doing the things
26 herein alleged, was acting within the course and scope of that relationship. Plaintiff is further
27
28

1 informed, believes and thereon alleges that each of the Defendants herein gave consent, aid,
2 and assistance to each of the remaining Defendants, and ratified and/or authorized the acts or
3 omissions of each Defendant as alleged herein, except as may be hereinafter otherwise
4 specifically alleged.

6 12. At all material times unless otherwise mentioned, each Defendant was jointly 7 engaged in tortious activity, resulting in the deprivation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights and 8 other harm.

10 13. The acts and omissions of Defendants Salkin, Haas, Fuston and Does 1-10 as 11 set forth herein at all material times were pursuant to the actual customs, policies, practices and 12 procedures of Sonoma County and SCSO.
13

14 14. This Complaint may be pled in the alternative pursuant to Federal Rule of 15 Civil Procedure 8(d)(2).
16

17 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

18 15. Plaintiff re-alleges each and every paragraph in this Complaint as if fully set
19 forth herein.
20

21 16. Plaintiff's claim arises from an incident that took place on Old Redwood
22 Highway approaching Pacific Heights Drive in Santa Rosa, California. The incident occurred
23 as follows: Plaintiff's wife, Alicia Lang, called the Sonoma County Sheriff's Office to advise
24 that Plaintiff had been drinking and was seated behind the wheel of his vehicle in the driveway
25 of their home, possibly about to drive under the influence of alcohol. Two Sonoma County
26 Sheriff Deputies, identified as Defendants Salkin and Haas, responded to Plaintiff's residence
27 and detained him nearby without incident.
28

1           17.       While detaining Plaintiff for a DUI investigation, Defendants Salkin and Haas,
2 wrongfully and intentionally assaulted Plaintiff with such force as to inflict great bodily injury,
3 including a fracture to his knee, a fracture to his shoulder, and numerous lacerations to his head
4 and face.

6           18.       First, in an act of excessive and unlawful force, one or both Defendants
7 threw Plaintiff to the ground, fracturing his shoulder, and then handcuffed him behind his back.
8 Although Plaintiff offered no resistance, Defendant Salkin struck numerous closed-fisted blows
9 to Plaintiff's face and head. Simultaneously, Defendant Haas delivered numerous full-force
10 baton blows to Plaintiff's knees. Use of this level of force was likely to produce great bodily
11 injury, which did in fact result. The use of this force was particularly unnecessary because 12 Plaintiff was incapacitated, handcuffed behind his back, in a fully prone position on the ground
13 unable to resist and entirely defenseless.

16           19.       The use of force against Plaintiff by Defendants Salkin, Haas and Does 1-10
17 was unreasonable, unnecessary, illegal, excessive, and constituted a violation of Plaintiff's
18 rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.
19

20           20.       As this incident occurred on the street, two percipient witnesses telephoned
21 '911' emergency services and reported the illegal conduct of the officers. Shortly thereafter,
22 defendant Sheriff's Deputy Mark Fuston was informed of these witnesses and engaged a course
23 of conduct to dissuade them from accurately testifying, informing them, among other things,
24 that the Plaintiff was a "wife beater" who had attempted to take the officer's gun and steal their
25 car, and that he was previously convicted of assaulting a peace officer. None of these facts
26 were true.
27
28

1           21.   Following Plaintiff's arrest, Defendants Salkin, Haas and Fuston conspired and
2           agreed to allege in a crime report to the District Attorney of Sonoma County that Plaintiff had
3           committed various felonies, which they knew to be untrue, for the purpose of concealing the
4           excessive force Defendants Salkin and Haas perpetrated upon Plaintiff, and to create a false
5           sense of justification for the degree of that force that they employed.

7           22.   As a result of the false representations contained within the Arrest Narrative
8           Reports that Defendants Salkin, Haas and Fuston submitted, the Sonoma County District
9           Attorney filed three felony counts against Plaintiff. These counts, which are contained within 10          People of the State of California versus Peter Justin Lang (Sonoma County Case Number 11          SCR602847), alleged that the Plaintiff had committed felony violations of Penal Code Sections
12          69 and 243(c)(2). Consequently, Plaintiff was compelled to retain counsel and to incur legal 13          fees.
14

15          23.   During the preliminary hearing on the three felony counts, the trial court judge
16          heard testimony from Defendant Salkin for the Prosecution and from one of the two
17          aforementioned percipient witnesses from the Defense. Following the evidentiary presentation,
18          the trial court judge dismissed Count One and reduced to misdemeanors Counts Two and Three 19          pursuant to Penal Code Section 17(b).
20

21          24.   Following the preliminary hearing, the District Attorney discovered that 22          Defendant Salkin had testified falsely throughout a portion of his testimony regarding a prior 23          credibility issue. This issue directly involved a former deputy District Attorney who had since
24          become a Superior Court judge.
25

26          25.   The Sonoma County District Attorney and the Superior Court judge submitted
27
28

1 declarations to the Court for inclusion in the court file attesting to the false testimony of 2 Defendant Salkin. The assigned deputy District Attorney moved the court to dismiss the
3 remaining two allegations of battery on a peace officer. The specific ground for the dismissal
4 request was "in the interests of justice." The dismissal of these two remaining charges was
5 granted by the Court. (Mr. Lang pled no contest to V.C Section 23152b, and received a
6 sentence in compliance with California law for first offenders.)

8 26. The conduct of Defendants Salkin, Haas, and Fuston, both in regard to 9 Plaintiff's beating and their ensuing attempt to conceal its unlawfulness, was malicious,
10 wanton, oppressive and accomplished with a conscious disregard for the rights of Plaintiff, thus 11 warranting the imposition of punitive damages.
12

13 27. The defamatory statements that Defendant Fuston made regarding Plaintiff's 14 history of spousal abuse, as alleged above, were completely unfounded and made with the 15 intent to conceal the true nature of Plaintiff's altercation with Defendants Salkin and Haas.
16 Defendant Fuston's conduct was malicious, wanton, oppressive, and accomplished with a
17 conscious disregard for the rights of Plaintiff, thus warranting the imposition of punitive 18 damages.
19

20 28. Plaintiff has required continuing medical treatment for the injuries he sustained
21 as a result of Defendants' conduct and has incurred substantial medical bills. Further, Plaintiff's 22 injuries have prevented him from working as a carpenter, resulting in a significant loss of 23 income.

25 29. As a direct and proximate result of each Defendant's acts and/or omissions as 26 set forth above, Plaintiff sustained the following injuries and damages, past and future, among 27
28

1 others:

- 2 a. Physical pain and suffering;
- 3 b. Emotional pain and suffering;
- 4 c. Medical expenses;
- 5 d. Loss of past and future income;
- 6 e. Violation of constitutional rights;
- 7 f. Legal fees in defense of the criminal action;
- 8 g. All damages and penalties recoverable under 42 USC §§ 1983 and
- 9 1988, and as otherwise allowed under California and United States statutes, codes and common
- 10 law.
- 11
- 12

13 30. Plaintiff filed a timely claim with Defendant Sonoma County pursuant to

14 California Government Code § 910 et seq. on December 5, 2011. Defendant Sonoma County

15 rejected that claim on January 19, 2012 by failing to respond within 45 days as required by 16 California Government Code section 912.4(a).

17

18 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

19 Violation of Civil Rights, 42 U.S.C. § 1983

20 (Defendants Salkin, Haas and Fuston)

21

22 31. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates each and every paragraph in this

23 Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

24

25 32. Defendants Salkin and Haas used unreasonable, unnecessary, illegal, and

26 excessive force against Plaintiff, constituting a violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Fourth

27 and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

28

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

35. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates each and every paragraph in this Complaint as though fully set forth herein.

a. Using or tolerating the use of excessive and/or unjustified force, including the use of batons, offensive tactics, and application of control holds during the seizure of a person;

c. Failing to institute, require and enforce proper training and adequate supervision policies, and procedures concerning subparagraphs (a) and (b) above;

1 following means:

- 2 i. Failing to properly investigate and/or evaluate complaints of 3 incidents of unlawful seizures and excessive force;
5 ii. Ignoring and/or failing to properly and adequately investigate
6 and discipline unconstitutional or unlawful police activity; and
8 iii. Allowing, tolerating, and/or encouraging police officers to file
9 incomplete or inaccurate police reports; false police reports,
10 make false statements, intimidate, bias and/or "coach" witnesses
11 to give false information and/or attempt to bolster officers'
12 stories; and/or obstruct or interfere with investigations of 13 unconstitutional or unlawful police conduct by withholding
14 and/or concealing material information.

15
16 e. To allow, tolerate, and/or encourage a "code of silence" among law
17 enforcement officers and Sheriff's Department personnel, whereby an officer or member of the 18 department does not provide adverse information against a fellow officer or member of the 19 department or hold another member accountable for official misconduct; and 20

21 f. To use or tolerate inadequate, deficient, and improper procedures for 22 handling, investigating, and reviewing complaints of officer misconduct, including claims
23 made under California Government Code section 910 et seq.
24

25 37. Defendants Sonoma County, SCSO, and Does 1-10 failed to properly hire,
26 train, instruct, monitor, supervise, evaluate, investigate, and discipline Defendants Salkin,
27 Haas, Fuston, and Does 1-10, and other law enforcement personnel, with deliberate
28

1 indifference to Plaintiff's Constitutional rights, which were thereby violated as described above.

2 38. Policy-making officers for SCSO approved, tolerated and/or ratified the 3 unconstitutional actions and/or omissions of Defendants Salkin, Haas, Fuston, Does 1-10, and 4 other law enforcement personnel. Plaintiff is informed, believes and thereupon alleges that the 5 details of this incident have been revealed to the authorized policy makers within Sonoma
6 County and SCSO and that such policy makers have direct knowledge of the facts of this
7 incident. Notwithstanding this knowledge, the authorized policy makers within Sonoma
8 County and SCSO have approved of the conduct of Defendants Salkin, Haas Fuston, Does 1-10
9 and other SCSO personnel and have made a deliberate choice to endorse the decisions of those 10 defendant officers and the bases for their decisions. By so doing, the authorized policy makers
11 within Sonoma County and SCSO have shown affirmative agreement with the individual
12 defendant officers' actions and have ratified the unconstitutional acts of the individual
13 defendant officers.
14
15
16

17 39. The aforementioned customs, policies, practices, and procedures, and the 18 failure to properly and adequately hire, train, instruct, monitor, supervise, evaluate, investigate, 19 and discipline, as well as the unconstitutional orders, approvals, ratification and toleration of 20 wrongful conduct by Defendants Sonoma County, SCSO, and Does 1-10, were a moving force
21 and/or a proximate cause of the deprivations of Plaintiff's clearly established and well-settled
22 constitutional rights in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983, as more fully set forth in the paragraphs 23 above.
25

26 40. Defendants subjected Plaintiff to their wrongful conduct, depriving Plaintiff of 27 the rights described herein, knowingly, maliciously, and with conscious disregard for whether 28

1 the rights and safety of Plaintiff and others would be violated by their acts and/or omissions.

2 40. As a direct and proximate result of the unconstitutional actions, omissions,
3 customs, policies, practices and procedures of Defendants Sonoma County, SCSO and Does 1-
4 10 as described above, Plaintiff sustained serious injuries that now warrant the imposition of 5 penalties, costs, attorney fees, and damages paid to Plaintiff.

7 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

8 Violation of Civil Code § 52.1 9 (All Defendants)

10 41. Plaintiff realleges each and every paragraph in this Complaint as if fully set
11 forth herein.
12

14 concert/conspiracy, as described above, violated Plaintiff's rights under California Civil Code §

25 Constitution, Article 1, Section 1 provides;

27 d. The right to be free from unlawful and unreasonable seizure of one's 28 person for which the California Constitution, Article 1, Section 13 provides;

2 California Constitution, Article 1, Section 13 provides;

3 f. The right to protection from bodily restraint, harm, or personal insult, for 4 which California Civil Code § 43 provides.

5 43. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' violation of California Civil 6 Code § 52.1 and of Plaintiff's rights under the United States and California Constitutions and 7 statutes, Plaintiff sustained injuries and damages and is entitled to relief as set forth above and 8 to all damages allowed by California Civil Code §§52, 52.1, and California law, not limited to 9 costs, attorney fees, treble damages, and civil penalties.

14       as set forth above and including but not limited to the use of excessive force against Plaintiff
15       and the fabrication of evidence regarding the circumstances of Plaintiff's arrest, resulting in the 16       filing of meritless criminal charges against him.
